maintenance needs too, it was proposed to raise the school fees up to 10%, as per the acceptable norms of the state Govt. All the members agreed in principle and found the proposal justified. As the parent members too were of the same opinion, the proposal was unanimously accepted.

All the members approved the fee hike proposal, keeping the students' interests in mind.

5. Mr. Ashish Singh, member representative, enquired about the well-being and safety needs of the students. He was informed by the principal that along with 385 CCTV cameras and a watchful monitoring room, the school had a fleet of Guards deputed at the important points for close monitoring. The Counselling and Guidance group of the school, organized programs like Swasti- strategies for wellbeing and Disha – Career Counselling session.
6. Mr. B. N Bajpai, member representative brought to light the fact that this school had the highest involvements of parents, alumni and the nearby community as well as the cooperation from the members of district administration. Mr. Ramesh Gaur, parent representative was of the opinion that the school team provides the best support to the senior secondary students for career orientation which was exemplary in itself. To this Ms. Niharika another parent, added that the care provided to Junior & Middle school students for skill building was amazing too. She felt her children were safe and secure in Amity's environment.
7. Mr. Ajay Chauhan urged the Principal, Arti Chopra, to gear up, if massive infrastructural changes and new constructions come their way in the school building and make some alternative arrangements for sports. as per the needs of the school. Ms. Ameeta Mohan, Principal, AIS Pusp Vihar, echoed similar experience from her school.
8. Ms. Sumity Kapoor, teacher representative, added that the parents of students studying in Amity International School, sector 46, Gurgaon have been giving excellent feedback during all their interactions with the school teachers and administrators, throughout the year, both during online and offline regular visits.
9. Reviewing the comments and discussions held, Dr (Mrs.) Amita Chauhan, Chairperson, expressed her delight over the unanimous decision of all the members to raise the school fees, in the session 2022-23, in the interests of the school's development and welfare of staff and students
10. Dr T P S Chauhan, appreciated the efforts of the school Principal and teachers, in keeping the teaching learning environment conducive, in spite of the post pandemic pressures, for the growth and development of the children
